Lighting Technician (Fixed Term Contract)

Royal Albert Hall

Welcome

From Jon Vivash, Lighting Operations Manager

Thank you for your interest in the role of Lighting Technician at The Royal Albert Hall. This is an exciting time to join us, as we are continuing to develop a large infrastructure project and plan the busy autumn 2026 season. This role is a fixed term contract in one of the most historic performance venues in the world.

We are seeking a skilled and motivated Lighting Technician with a strong understanding of lighting systems in complex, live event environments. Ideally, you will have proven experience operating MA lighting consoles, knowledge of complex moving light rigs and lighting control networks, a track record of effective problem-solving under pressure, competence in lighting maintenance and repair and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced, high-pressure setting.

In this role, you will be an essential part of the Lighting team, contributing to the technical excellence of every performance and event. Collaborating with other technical teams, including Staging, Sound, and Rigging you will be able to conduct yourself in a positive, professional manner at all times. We will support and encourage you to take a proactive approach and demonstrate individual responsibility within a strong team environment.

We're looking for someone who embodies the Hall's culture of inclusivity, collaboration, and creativity, and who takes pride in upholding its world-renowned reputation. You'll join a passionate and dedicated team, continually pushing for innovation and improvement, helping maintain the Royal Albert Hall's status as one of the world's most iconic and inspiring venues.

We are committed to building a diverse and inclusive team and would like to actively encourage applications from individuals from marginalised and underrepresented groups. Your unique perspective and experience will be valued as we work to reflect the full breadth of the communities and audiences we serve. If you're excited about the opportunity to make a meaningful and lasting impact, I'd be delighted to hear from you.

Introducing the Royal Albert Hall

The Royal Albert Hall is an iconic venue and a registered charity, held in trust for the nation.

Our charitable purpose is to:

- Promote the Arts and Sciences
- Preserve and enhance our Grade I listed building

Since we opened our doors in 1871, the Royal Albert Hall has been home to the world's leading figures in music, dance, entertainment and conversation. From the Suffragettes to Stormzy, Elgar to Einstein, the Beatles to Bassey... icons grace our stage.

A charity known and loved across the globe, we are home to dreams and determination, contemplation and celebration – bringing people together to lift their spirits and inspire. Every year nearly 2 million people enjoy unforgettable experiences in our spectacular building, with millions more joining us online and through broadcast worldwide.

We are home to the future – working tirelessly to enable talent to thrive. We embrace change as well as tradition, inviting the new, the radical and the bold. We are open to all, a committed force for good, connecting people and communities.

Our Vision

Our vision is for the Royal Albert Hall to be the home of breathtaking moments and lasting memories, for everyone.

Together, we create the amazing.

Our Strategic Objectives

We have four Strategic Objectives that will help us achieve our Vision:

1. Driving progress on the Hall's Vision to be a home for everyone – artists and audiences
2. Generating funds for the Estate Plan and other projects
3. Investing in people and systems
4. Building the Hall's reputation as a Force For Good:
 - A Home For Everyone – Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
 - A Home For Thriving Creativity – Engagement and wellbeing
 - A Home For a Sustainable Future – Towards net-zero and biodiversity.

Royal Albert Hall

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

The Hall supports an equal, diverse and inclusive environment for all.

We want everyone to feel that the Royal Albert Hall is a place for them, where they truly belong. To do this, diversity and inclusion must be built into everything that we do, so that it's a part of who we are. We want our programme, staff and audiences to be reflective of London and to celebrate the diversity of the communities that we serve. So we look to recruit colleagues who support these ambitions and values.

We aim to be a force for good, and we know that what we programme on our stage has the power to shift and change mindsets. We are increasing the number of global majority headliners and younger performers at the Royal Albert Hall. And we are creating new opportunities for diverse participants across the Hall team.

“I want the Hall to champion a diverse array of performers, and to attract staff and audiences that truly reflect modern Britain. There is much still to do, but we are working hard to ensure the Hall is a home for everyone.”

- James Ainscough OBE, Chief Executive

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

We are committed to:

- Providing training on inclusivity to all staff.
- Implementing a structured and transparent framework for talent management and promotion to drive consistency, equity, and strategic workforce development.
- Reviewing our recruitment strategies to ensure that we can widen our candidate pool and further increase the diversity of our workforce.
- Leverage data-driven insights from staff engagement and pulse surveys to inform and deliver targeted interventions that cultivate a sense of belonging and high-performing team cultures.
- Establishing end-to-end reasonable adjustments processes that proactively support accessibility and inclusivity for all employees and visitors.
- Strengthening the Hall's mental health and wellbeing agenda by expanding support mechanisms and resources aligned with evolving staff and visitor needs.
- Working with our EDI staff working group to champion our initiatives. By collaborating with this group, we'll ensure our team understands and actively supports our commitment to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
- Ensuring that our tours and archive properly represent the Hall's rich and diverse history.
